

CALIFORNIA

I see them all around this town / They followed in their heroes name / They built a wall and they knocked it down / Couldn't bear the load long enough to stay / I pray for them as they find their way / A soul lost in a desert storm / The sweet escape to another place / Looking for a dime to keep them warm

Oh, oh why does this city shine so bright? / Oh, oh which street are you sleeping on at night? / Oh but who's gonna shine a light in the darkest hour of your life? /
Your life

*All the lost souls can you hear me? / All the lost souls in the world
All the lost souls do you copy? Oh / All the lost souls in the world*

I know everyday that I wake up to / I thank my angels and my lucky stars / Cause I've been blessed with everything I need to / Yeah I'm on my way / Lord knows I'm working hard

Oh, oh the sun never sets in California / If you're brave and if luck is on your side /
Oh but who's gonna shine a light in the darkest hour of your life? / Your life
